

NEWS FROM THE MONTGOMERY COUNTY - NORRISTOWN PUBLIC LIBRARY

Spring is coming and its time to take a peep at some of the exciting things blossoming at the library and bookmobile:

- We will celebrate the first ever National Bookmobile Day on Wednesday April 14! --featured in the center of National Library Week, April 11-17. As part of our festivities for National Bookmobile Day we will be giving away one free DVD rental coupon per patron, a chance to win a garden basket, and treats for the kids! It's a great time to get acquainted with all of the services and media available through your local library and to visit your local bookmobile.
- We are also kicking off the Pennsylvania One Book, Every Young Child program for 2010 on April 14th with the presentation of WHAT A TREASURE by Jane Hillenbrand. Please ask about the book and program when you visit the bookmobile or library. A free copy will be given to our pre-school patrons!
- Did you know that MC-NPL has a Books-Go-Round Bookmobile that visits preschools throughout Montgomery County? We visit the schools twice a month, share story times with the children when they come aboard the bookmobile, and allow the children to check out a book. We are proud of our efforts to instill a love of reading to our little friends. Call 610-278-5100 to inquire about this service offered to Montgomery County daycares.
- Save the Date!
The Library Festival is scheduled for Thursday July 15 from 3pm-7pm. Meet various authors, tour the bookmobiles, and take part in other fun activities.
